

WayCon Engineering is now eddylab

Dear Sir or Madam,

at the 01st of July WayCon Engineering GmbH became eddylab GmbH.

We renamed our company to have a shorter and more significant company name. The change of our company's name introduces a new brand identity. We also intend to be distinguished easier from other companies.

What will change for you in future?

Please consider that by the 01st of July 2016 only our name of the company, our website and our e-mail contacts have changed. All other contact data remain unchanged. These are: USt-Id., Register number, bank account, phone numbers and adress.

We kindly ask you to update our contact information in your systems as follows.

WayCon Engineering GmbH	→	eddylab GmbH
info@waycon-engineering.de	→	info@eddylab.de
www.waycon-engineering.de	→	www.eddylab.de

All our personalised mail addresses now have a new ending: @eddylab.de. Existing contracts will of course remain untouched concerning all rights and duties.

We are looking forward to an ongoing positive and beneficial cooperation.

With best regards
